eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followin.

ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editoas well have been published without any index. Up to this time the lawyer has constantly been under the necesknows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs.

The volume under review contains another excellence islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod - fied the provisions contained in that Rosiston, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages

Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation.

A still more valuable feature are the copions and accurate notes contained in the volume in question. This volume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate note-and references. Mesors. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. . By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval.

In every respect the volume under review is highly red-Itable to the diffigence, accuracy, talents and the taste o its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the Just expectation or the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o

Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book, solely because he believes the editors and publishers deserve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being soliclted to it by any one, to publish this notice of the book, LIGONTER, Noble county, Indiana, Peb. 5 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir- in the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurances them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired ct. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully.

A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counselor at Law OAR GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859

Prof O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappear-ance, I employed everything I could think of, being a pro-fessional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced. These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every rea-son to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not

Dear Sir:--I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance , which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our ad-oining countles, many persons can testify to the truth of I advise every one who has a Cough or a Husky Voice this statement; I give it to you at the request of Bradford.

You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.
Yours, &c., THOMPSON SURGHNOR. CHESTER, S. C., 30th July, 1859. PROF. O. J. Woon-Dear Ser: I take pleasure in recommending your Hair Restorative as a most excellent cure for scald head. My son was suffering very much from this head. Many others will certify that this and many other cases was cured from the use of your most valuable Hair Respectfully yours, GEORGE McSUAIN. The New York Day Book says: "The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics. Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now before the public under such extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. HOG'S LARD, WHALE OIL, LARD OIL, SWEET OIL, scented and colored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers and white flint glass bottles, the costflest character of tonics; and when thus costly are baptized with some trisyllable term, and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. This gentlemen comes before the world with-out any "highfalutin" Xilophloforium, or any other asout any "highfalutin" Attophiloforium, or any other as-tounding or startling catchpenny terms; he simply ad-vertises a Hair Restorative—what it expresses, pre-cisely—and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative; and, as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you will get some worse substance than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Bemember, Wood's Restorative for the hair is the best article extent." A package will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of
